1. Determine if the following intersection can be safely operated under basic rules of the road.

2. What should be your recommended phasing and cycle length for the following intersection?
Additional Questions for CIVL 6162

1. How many possible conflicting points are there in a typical conventional T-intersection.
   Show your answer with drawings.