Consider the problem indicated in Example E27-6 in Dynamics of Structures by Clough and Penzien. Compute the expected base shears and torques using the SRSS and CQC methods of modal combination. Discuss significance of differences.